

People with Learning Disabilities in the Criminal Justice System

KeyRing
... We're Life Changing

Helping you to be fully informed

The Working for Justice Group: People with learning disabilities using their experience of the criminal justice system to help bring about positive change.

Find out more: www.keyring.org/cjs

Supported by KeyRing Living Support Networks, The Working for Justice group help criminal justice professionals understand the needs of people who have a learning disability.

Examples of previous work:

- Helping to develop and deliver learning disability awareness training to criminal justice staff.
- Assisting with Images and Easy Read versions of documents, allowing readers to access information more independently.
- Making criminal justice interventions with young and older adults as effective as possible. I.e. 'Fairer Justice for All' project funded by Barrow Cadbury Trust.

Visit the KeyRing website and find the following:

Training resources.

Information on Easy Read.

Further information on the Working for Justice group.

To find out more visit: www.keyring.org/cjs

Please contact Tracy Hammond or Christina Riddle if you would like to discuss using the expertise or potential meetings of the group.

  Tracy.Hammond@KeyRing.org / 079574 77020

  Christina.Riddle@KeyRing.org / 07908 103755

KeyRing
... We're Life Changing