

Probation - Easy Read Examples

Communication Toolkit

The National Homelessness Advice Service have provided a toolkit, designed to support prison and probation staff with their communication. There is also resources for people on probation.

Find it here

Violation of community order, need to go to court

Notice: Violation of community order, need to go to court (Thames Valley Probation Service)

This is an example of local best practice developed by Thames Valley Probation service

Hostel induction information

St John's hostel accepts referrals from Offender Managers. They provide a Welcome leaflet on their website. Their Induction letter was previously used to help new tenants understand the hostel and what was expected of them.

Deciding what is best for local people on probation, England and Wales

Although deadlines have passed to submit requests, The Ministry of Justice created an encouraging Easy Read document for ex-prisoners, encouraged requests and ideas for making probation better. Find out how they requested this here. Entries have now closed.