

CONSENT TO SHARE

Consent for KeyRing to use my photograph, video and words.

KeyRing needs your written permission (consent) to use your photo, video, or words in our publications to follow data protection laws.

Please fill in this form online using the QR code if you can. If not you can fill it in by hand below.

HOW WE MIGHT USE YOUR PHOTO, VIDEO, AND WORDS:

- To promote events and services
- To share your story on social media
- In newspapers, newsletters, posters, websites, and leaflets - these may be online or printed.

If you do not want any of these uses, you can let us know below.

Your consent will last for three years. We will check with you again after that. If you want KeyRing to stop using your photo, video, or words before then, you can email us at enquiries@keyring.org. We will stop using them for new things.

Please note that if your photo, video, or words have already been published, others might copy and use them. We will do our best to ask others to remove them, but we cannot promise they will.

For more information you can read KeyRing's privacy statement online.
